Dedicated to preserving the memory
of Sir Harry Burrard Neale

The Friends of Sir Harry – part of the Lymington Society – is pleased to announce a talk at the Lymington Centre.

Eminent local historian Barry Jolly, will present a talk entitled 'The real Sir Harry;
the man, the myth and the monument'.

During the talk Barry, a graduate in History, former Lieutenant Commander in the Royal Navy and Trustee of Milford-on-Sea Historical Record Society, will discuss who built the famous Burrard Neale Monument in Walhampton and why? New research examines the man, the myth, and why the monument was built and who really gained by its erection, the memory of Sir Harry or the Burrard family.

Friday 13th of March | 6:00 for 6.30pm
